A Celebration of Madness Mad Pride Toronto 2014 From July 7 – 13

Mad Pride is an art, culture, and heritage festival created by psychiatric survivors, mad people, and folks the world has labeled “mentally ill”. Our lives and contributions need celebration!

Mad Pride is about:

- remembering and participating in mad history
- challenging discrimination
- advocating for rights
- affirming mad identities
- having fun!

Everyone Is Invited

Welcome, welcome, welcome! We’re delighted to admit new “mad” people and those in solidarity with us to our movement. Come as you are, do as you do.

Events and Locations

This year, Mad Pride Toronto has 17 events at 5 different locations. See the rest of this newsletter for all the details, including handy maps.

Help Us Spread the Word!

Please share, post, forward, announce and talk about the festival with your friends, family, students, teachers and peers! Our web site is madprideto.com.
